Youth Bail Support Program

Our Youth Bail Support Program supports other agencies to help prevent crime, to act early in reconnecting young people to make healthy choices, support good behaviour and a positive future.

This program operates in business hours (Monday to Friday) and is conducted by 3 specialist youth workers.

Our Youth Bail Support Program helps to ensure that young people will have:

- » Improved chances of being granted bail
- » Improved capacity to meet their conditions of bail
- » Increased strengths and wellbeing
- » Families contributing to help reduce offences in future

Our goal is to work with the young people to make positive changes in their lives, such as:

- » Improved cultural connectedness
- » Improved family/kin relationships
- » Improved participation in learning
- » Improved participation in employment
- » Improved housing situation

To be eligible to receive support from this program the young person, people or their families (where appropriate) must be:

- » Involved in the Youth Justice system
- » Have committed or are alleged to have committed an offence
- » Are remanded in custody or at risk of remand due, in part, to lack of positive support in their community
- » Are exiting detention from a period of remand and are at risk of returning to detention
- » Are appearing in court on offences and are at risk of being remanded in custody
